Travel Accomodations

When making travel arrangements, inquire about smoking accommodations with your travel agent or at the hotel where you will be staying. If the hotel prohibits smoking, contact the hotel management and voice your opposition. Make it clear that due to their strict anti-smoking policy, you will have no choice but to seek accommodations elsewhere. A successful hotel should place great importance on the comfort of all of its guests, and therefore cannot afford to impose policies which will offend so many. Contact the local hotel/motel association to gain their support in your efforts as well.
